From the President

Greetings y'all from Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Dallas, Texas. We had a wonderful time visiting with friends and family. Caught more bass and catfish than I ever have. We attended the Grand Ole Opry Show with friends, sitting center stage 3rd row. What a good time we had. I did not like the Thunder Storms and Tornados, but loved the Southern meals.

We attended the High School Graduation of my niece, Lyndsey. They still pray in the Oklahoma Schools. I was very pleased about their honoring our Lord. Finished our trip with a visit to Dallas and had lunch with Irving P.D. Officer, Naya DeLeon Pope, a former SSD Deputy.

I've talked with some of our members and was told that our yearly Range Day went off quite well. I was also advised again that Mike Garcia provided us with a great meal. Thanks Mike. Please remember that our upcoming June meeting will be the last meeting before our summer break. We'll resume our regular meetings through this year beginning in September.
