From the President

Happy St. Patrick's Day to all. Mike Garcia and his son provided us with one of the most delicious Corn Beef and Cabbage, Potato's, and Carrots meals since last year's St. Patrick's Meal. Imagine that. It was a good time had by all.

Our guest speaker S.C.E.R.S. CEO Eric Stern joined us for his first meeting and reported on how SCERS is doing. He gave us some information on his background and said that he was glad to be of service to all of us county employees. Made me feel good when he shared that we in safety retirement would earn a COLA raise of 3% next month. Other COLA raises for the different brackets of retirees were also quoted. See page 3. He even won a couple of raffle prizes. Our retirement system is still very strong. See our secretaries report included in this news letter.

Next meeting we'll have Sgt. Matt Owens, our range master, present as our guest speaker.

In the absence of a sunshine report from Pat O'Neal, I reported the following to the membership. A message from Pam Irey was received advising that Wayne Irey was now considered on hospice, but God continues to bless them with Wayne's grit & determination. They are cherishing every moment with him. He still has the strength in himself to tell them how to run the Ranch and let them know when they are doing it wrong. Secret is that, Pam continues to mess up so that Wayne has to stay. Just one of their coping methods. I'm not to let him know though. Prayers to Wayne & Pam and all who are with him. Update: Wayne passed 3/16.

Our immediate Past President Earl (The Pearl) Evans is recovering from a fall in his garage. I don't know why he couldn't stay on the ladder. Managed to break his hip, had surgery, was in recovery in a therapy facility for a few weeks and is now home recovering. Don Nelson and I visited with him today, had coffee and a donut as we sat at his kitchen table. He looks good and is getting around walking with a cane in good spirits. God's Blessings, Earl.

If anyone out there knows the whereabouts of retired Deputy Louis Schur, his nephew is trying to make contact with him. Let Kathy Shannon know if you can, she received a message from the nephew.

Lew Bauder's family has asked for any officers who know Lew to please come and visit him. It will lift his spirits and help him heal faster. He is in Windsor Elk Grove Care & Rehab Center, 9461 Bates Ave, Elk Grove. 916-685-9525 or home to talk w/ his wife Margie, #916-684-3991. God's Blessings, Lew.
