From the President

Greetings to y'all from Tennessee, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. Having a wonderful time visiting with friends and family. I will be going after more bass and catfish again while I'm here.

We had an excellent meeting Wednesday. 30 members were in attendance. We welcomed 8 new members to the 711 Club, (see Secretary Nancy Gust's message attached for their names).

Our guest speaker Chaplain Mindy Russell of our Greater Sacramento Area Chaplaincy was a Blessing to all of us. Mindy gave us such an explanation on the focus of the Chaplaincy's outreach and the appreciated Trust and Concern that members of the Sheriff's Department have given throughout the years. What a presentation Mindy gave us.

Our Treasurer Kathy Shannon was absent due to temporary illness. We wish her well.

We will meet again on Wednesday, September 12th here at the SCDSA headquarters.

When we return we will be searching for new officers to replace part of our current leadership. As of now, the President and Vice President officer's positions will be open.

There is a serious need for help prior to our meetings and after. Setting up for the meeting takes a lot of time and as you know we are all seniors and the work to setup is exhausting. Please Help us!

See Y'all in September.... Richard
