From the President

Hi, 711 Club members, it is June and summer is here. Again, I missed the June's meeting because I was out of the state again and I needed the assistance from Kathleen for some information on June's meeting. Thank you, Kathleen, for your assistance. So, needless to say this will be short and to the point.

June's meeting had 22 members there for lunch. The speaker was Mindi Russell, she spoke about her recent trip to Ukraine and the desperation of the Ukrainian people and those who are trying to assist them in getting to safety.

There are no meetings in July or August. I hope everyone has a great summer and see you in September.

Sandra

General Members Present: 22      Guests: 1      New Members: None

Sunshine Report: No report

Speaker: Mindy Russell – Visit to Ukraine – Mindy received her Masters in Traumatology (Psychological) in 2020.

In 2019 twenty police chaplains were asked to come to the US and train. Other people recommended LEC to provide the training. Over 400 people were trained over Zoom including chaplains from Ukraine. The training helped 14 suicidal officers.

In 2020 a curriculum was developed, and Mindy joined Code 9. Worked with the World Kitchen. They made soup that fed 1,000 people twice a day.

2021 – Another group of chaplains trained (total now 800). March of 2022 – House of Red – come talk to people going back to Ukraine. Only men pastors.

There was human trafficking going on. Every night little kids would share one positive thing over dinner. Poland was wonderful and took in 14 Ukrainians. Other countries were there except US to offer a place to Ukrainians to live.
