From the President

Welcome back !!

I hope everyone had an enjoyable summer, stayed cool, experienced new adventures and are ready for a beautiful fall.

Our September speaker is Scott Brown, Airport Bureau - POP/JTTF. He is the author of Facing Evil. Ray Johnston, Pastor of Bayside Church, wrote; "Brown vividly recounts the murder of his partner, then transparently chronicles his personal journey from massive guilt and anger to wholeness...the story is raw, real and sometimes not easy to read, will help readers who struggle with grief, bitterness, loss or guilt."

We are hoping to host a blood drive along with the DSA in the near future. We have to have 30 people to commit for Vitalant to set a date. We will be sending out a survey soon, so please look for it.

And some very exciting news...we have partnered with Kris Pedretti to raise funds for a new Soft Room for SSO's Central Area Station on 65th and Florin. Kris is a survivor of the East Area Rapist and founder of the Sexual Assault Survivors, It's Time To Tell Your Story.

We are collecting toys early for Toy Project. Starting at our October meeting, please bring your toys, and we will collect through our holiday party.

I would like to challenge each of you to attend Septembers meeting and support one of our own. It would be great for you to also bring a guest who might be interested in Scott Browns story. His book will be available for purchase.
