Hello Everyone!

Go see the PIG BOWL MUSEUM..NOW! It is a pop-up and may not be with us long. The address is 7919 Folsom Blvd. Suite 200. Our January meeting was held there thanks to Barbara/Bubba Smith and Sue Paulson! SPD, Fire, Sue Paulson and Robin Sutter have done a great job gathering memorabilia from over the years and putting it on display in the 12,000 square foot room. Take a look at some of our pictures on SSD Retired FB to get a glimpse of some of it. Any donations to the museum would be greatly appreciated.

Thank You Undersheriff Mike Ziegler for being our guest speaker in January. He addressed the direction of the department; how the Sheriff is dealing with the homeless, thefts and staffing shortages, to name a few subjects. It was plain talk about big issues and great to see how their past political experience has helped navigate new laws.

Next, attend the Pig Bowl...Guns and Hoses. Players from the last 50 years will be gathered for a fun filled day and game. Its on January 27th 2024, Hughes Stadium, gates open at 11am, kick off at 1pm. Tickets can be purchased online. Look for our 711 pop-up with Bubba, Larry and Mike who will be handing out swag and smiles.

The beginning of the month saw the opening of the new Soft Interview Room at Central Area Station on 65th Street. Kris Pedretti of Sexual Assault Survivors: It's Time To Tell Your Story, is continuing her mission of Soft Interview Rooms; one at Rancho Cordova has been finished and the one at Orange Grove was updated. Kris has now started her own non profit, Phyllis's Garden, so look for her efforts at other law enforcement agencies.

Sue, Earl and I visited the Schaber Courthouse for LE Appreciation Day on Jan. 9th and took donuts and coffee for the officers. They were very appreciative of both. We saw old friends and made some new ones. Sgt. Leroy Baker and Capt. Ramos made us feel at home and welcomed us to visit the new courthouse when it opens in a year.

24-SBRA-I started about 3 weeks ago and this week a $500.00 check was presented to the class President from the 711 Club. We witnessed some butt puckering when the class was going on break and the staff started yelling ,Gun, Gun, Gun!! Does that bring back memories?

Range day will be Thursday, May 9th! Mark your calendar!

If you pay dues or for lunch online, or any other activity, the receipt will come from WIX.

February speaker will be retired Sgt. Steve Hayes who works the Re-Entry Program at RCCC with the Bee Keeping program. Bring some money because he's going to bring some honey!

Be safe and be happy,
JoAnn

Speaker: Mike Ziegler, Undersheriff. The Sheriff and Mike worked together in several work assignments before Cooper got elected to State Office. Mike was asked by Cooper to serve as his political officer and served with him 8 years at the Capital. All politics are local and serving is encouraged. The Sheriff and Undersheriff are using relationships built up to get bad bills changed to not so horrible for law enforcement.

Patrol has 18 shifts and they have visited all of them. They have enacted a Training Development Group that picks up after Patrol Training is completed. They have also looked at what calls deputies are responding to. They want to fight crime. Some calls are not responded to such as noise complaints. A Sergeant may be sent out to check certain calls.

The Department has gone from no recruiters to two. Need to hire 30 new officers for the Courthouse which is projected to partially open in the Fall.
